Westhill Inc. Privacy Policy

Westhill Inc. is committed to respecting your private information and protecting it from misuse. This policy may change from time to time due to enhancements to our systems or changes in the law.

Basic Privacy Principles The following basic privacy principles apply throughout our entire enterprise, whether we gather information through our Web site, via a consultation or are hired to perform a service.

We consider certain information, which we may learn or create while we engage in our business to be a client's personally identifiable information. We do not consider all information that we may gather or create in operating our business to be personally identifiable information. Without your consent or as specified below, we will use your personally identifiable information, which we learn through our interactions with you only for the purposes you would reasonably anticipate us doing. This includes use to contact you to answer your questions, and to contact you with additional information where you have permitted us to do so.

We do not share, sell or trade your personally identifiable information with third parties.

We may also disclose personally identifiable information to others if we are required to do so by law, to protect and defend the rights of Westhill Inc. The security of your personally identifiable information is important to us. Although we cannot guarantee against loss, misuse, alteration, unauthorized disclosure or destruction of data, we use security measures to protect you from such occurrences. If necessary in accordance with the law, we will disclose to you any known or reasonably suspected breach in security involving your personally identifiable information.

Web Site In addition to the Basic Privacy Principles discussed above, the following policies apply specifically to our Web Site, www.westhillinc.com. Anonymous, non-personally identifiable information such as your IP address, domain server, type of computer, type of web browser, and addresses of referring site, also known as traffic data, may be collected and used to diagnose problems with our server and administer our site. We may also use cookies and action tags to collect information. Cookies and action tags allow us to compile statistics and other information about how you use our site. We may use this data to analyze trends and improve the usability of our site as well as to administer the site and gather broad demographic statistics. We may also share such non-personally identifiable information with third parties on an aggregate basis.

As a convenience, our site may contain links to other Internet web sites that we think you may find of interest. We are not responsible for the content of these sites, nor do we control, sponsor, endorse or approve them.
